

ATLANTA COC ANTI-DISCRIMINATION AND EQUAL ACCESS POLICY

The Atlanta Continuum of Care (CoC), which is comprised of homeless service agencies and providers, does not, and shall not, discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations. These activities include, but are not limited to, provision of any and all services, hiring and firing of staff, and selection of volunteers and vendors. We are committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our staff, clients, volunteers, subcontractors, vendors, and clients.

Additionally, the Atlanta CoC, and all affiliated agencies and providers, adhere to the Equal Access in Accordance with an Individual's Gender Identity in Community Planning and Development Programs, which ensures that all projects are open to all eligible individuals and families, regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status. Equal access to all accommodations, benefits, and services are provided to individuals and families.

In accordance with the 2016 HUD Gender Identity Final Rule (24 CFR Part 5), agrees to grant equal access to facilities, and other buildings and facilities, benefits, accommodations and services to individuals in accordance with the individual's gender identity, and in a manner that affords equal access to the individual's family.

Further, in accordance with the 2012 HUD Equal Access to housing Final Rule, {Insert Agency Name} agrees ensure that all shelter programs are open to individuals and families regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status. PCCI agrees that a family is defined as how individual families define themselves and could include but not be limited to: two parent households, same sex households, single father households, households with adult and/or minor children, and households with teenage males.

Finally, City of Atlanta shelters must provide services to individuals and families without regard to actual or perceived sexual orientation or gender identity.¹ Non-discrimination laws apply to all aspects of shelter operations, including admissions, room and programming assignments, permitted attire and access to wrap-around services.

{Insert Agency Name} attests that it has received and read the Non-Discrimination and Equal Access Policy. {Insert Agency Name} agrees to operate {insert project type} in strict adherence to the Policy.

{Insert Agency Name} fully understands that failure to comply with the Policy could be grounds for termination of the Rapid Re-Housing operating contract.
